2019-6-7	PLANNING MATTERS:	There were none for consideration.
2019-6-8	Westgate Industrial Site	The Council had received website contacts and personal approaches from residents concerned with the activities at the site. Chairman and Clerk had reviewed the previous history of the site from records dating back to the Land Army Hostel in 1952, and sought advice from FHDC. After brief discussion, Councillors DECIDED to invite the current operators to the next Parish Council meeting, to open up the lines of communication in a spirit of welcoming.	ACTION Clerk to hand-deliver written invitation by end June.
2019-6-9	Correspondence	1. Free Training on Planning Matters was offered by FHDC. This approach was welcomed, because of the major changes in the planning system taking place at present. Unfortunately the dates were found to be inconvenient by all concerned. 2. A recent email from newly-elected District Councillor Terry Mullard (Romney Marsh Ward, FHDC) sent Sunday stated he would be happy to come to Newchurch Parish Council meetings from time to time to report on FHDC matters. The Council welcomed his approach as he may also be able to represent collective concerns of residents at District level.	ACTION Clerk to invite Cllr Mullard to speak to September Parish Council meeting, by 7 th June
At this point Cllr Cragg left the meeting to attend to a phone call, then returned
2019-6-10	Any other business	Councillors returned to the questions of dog bins, and whether there was a pressing need for an extra bin near Norwood campsite. A question was asked as to the current status of the FHDC Local Plan. A plea was made for extra cutting/mowing of the Jubilee Field with mobility-impaired users in mind, so that a shorter sward could be established around the perimeter.	ACTION Cllr Cragg to approach the campsite owners to find a common way forward, as soon as possible. ACTION Cllr Cragg to update instructions to mowers with this in mind, as soon as possible.
At 8.38pm with the Chairman's permission Cllr Waters took his leave of the meeting, feeling unwell
2019-6-10 (continued)		Further discussion of the Playing Field Maintenance Schedule took place. General approval of a replacement seat was expressed, with the possibility of a memorial plaque. New charges and disposal policies at KCC dumps were noted.
2019-6-11	Date and place of next Parish Council meetings	After discussion Councillors agreed on Monday July 15 th , at 7.30pm at the Old Wool Store, no meeting in August, and September meeting to be 2 nd September same time and place.	ACTION Clerk to prepare and circulate agendas by 9 th July

The Chairman declared the Parish Council meeting to be concluded at 8.57 pm.
